MEDITATION

Sunday, January 18, 2026

Second Sunday in Ordinary Time

*... called to be holy, with all those everywhere
who call upon the name of our Lord Jesus Christ.
(1 Corinthians 1:2)*

At the beginning of his first letter to the Corinthians, St. Paul says that he was “called to be an apostle of Christ Jesus by the will of God” (1 Corinthians 1:1). That calling changed him and reoriented his life. Then he goes on to tell the Corinthians that God had called them too—to be holy, with everyone else who calls upon the name of Jesus (Corinthians 1:2). Through Baptism, they had been called to see and love each other as fellow members of Christ’s body.

This was an important reminder for the Corinthians because Paul goes on to tackle some problems he has heard about in their community, starting with factionalism and disunity. Paul urges them, in light of their calling, “that there be no divisions among you, but that you be united in the same mind and in the same purpose” (1 Corinthians 1:10). God had called them to be part of his own family, and that meant allowing him to uproot any selfishness or pride that would give rise to prejudices, divisions, and other barriers between them.

Today we begin the Week of Prayer for Christian Unity, and this year’s themes comes from Ephesians 4:4: “There is one body and one Spirit, just as you were called to the one hope of your calling.” That might remind you of today’s first reading. We are called, and that calling changes us. It’s meant to lead us to unity with everyone who belongs to Jesus. It’s meant to urge us to love each other to the point that we’re united.

So how do we start? A first step is to let Jesus help you see and love other Christians as fellow members of his body. So for the rest of this week, join believers around the world in praying the daily prayers for unity.

“Lord, make us one in you!”

PRAYER FOR CHRISTIAN UNITY

Lord Jesus Christ, You prayed that all who believe in You might be one, as You are one with the Father.

Today, we bring before You the divisions that exist among Christians. Where there is misunderstanding, bring clarity, where there is hurt, bring healing, where there is pride, bring humility.

Teach us to recognize one another not as strangers, but as brothers and sisters called by the same Lord.

Remove from our hearts every spirit of judgment, fear, and division. Fill us instead with charity, patience and mercy.

May your Holy Spirit guide us toward unity rooted in truth and love, so that the world may believe in Your saving grace.

We place this prayer in Your hands, Lord, trusting that You are always at work, even when unity seems distant. Amen.

POPE LEO’S MONTHLY PRAYER INTENTION FOR THE MONTH OF JANUARY

EMAIL BULLETINS

As most parishioners and friends know by now, our St. Louis website, www.stlouiskingoffrance.org, has been updated and refined several times over the last number of months. At this point, it is the most user friendly ever where one can find current and archived bulletins, periodic inserts, as well as various other interesting and helpful news items. As a result, and to avoid an unnecessary duplication of effort, we will no longer be emailing weekly bulletins to individual emails. However, if you know of a shut-in without internet access who would like to maintain parish contact, we would be happy to send them a hard copy of the bulletin in regular mail. If they agree, please forward to us their name, address and phone number and we will take it from there. Thank you for your understanding. Everything about us is only a button away, so happy scrolling!
