The Body and Blood of Christ
Corpus Christi

Five loaves and two fish are all we have. (Luke 9:13)

Today's Feast of Corpus Christi gives us the opportunity to celebrate the abundant generosity of the Lord. Our Gospel reading tells us how Jesus fed the thousands who followed him by miraculously multiplying five loaves of bread and two fish. As wondrous as that miracle was, we see his generosity even more abundantly in his gift of the Eucharist. At every Mass throughout the world, Jesus becomes fully present: Body and Blood, Soul and Divinity. As St. Carlos Acutis would say, "Jerusalem is right on our doorstep" in the Blessed Sacrament.

It takes faith to accept the truth of this profound miracle. But every now and then, God confirms our faith with a miracle, like the one he performed at St. Mary Parish in Chirattakonam, India, in April of 2001. During Adoration, three red stains appeared on the Host. Then, a few days later, the same Host bore the likeness of a human face. Responding to these events, the local archbishop wrote, "For us believers, what we have seen is something that we have always believed." (A description of this, as well as many other Eucharistic miracles, can be found at carloacutis.com).

Whether we experience an Eucharistic miracle or not, Jesus is still present at every Mass. Just as he multiplied the five loaves and two fishes that day, he takes something so small—a simple piece of bread—and transforms it into his very flesh, to feed his people.

Today, offer Jesus your very self. Yes, the little that you have to offer him is enough! Give him your worries, your cares, but also your blessings and gifts. Trust in his miracle-working love and power to do amazing things in and through you.

*"Jesus, nothing is too small for you.
I worship you in the Eucharist, and I offer you the little that I have. Come and work your wonders in me!"*

DEAR PARISHIONERS, FRIENDS AND VISITORS

Hello everyone and happy summer! Great news! As of Saturday, June 14, 2025, we have reached the million dollar mark of our endowment. At that time, we were roughly $25,000.00 short of our goal and Helene Houle stepped up to top it off. As you may recall, Helene and John Nasseff were instrumental in beginning this fund on January 3, 2019. I wish to sincerely thank Helene and John for their outstanding commitment and generosity. Adding to this, of course, is the generosity of all parishioners, friends and visitors who have contributed over the years. Together, as a parish community, you have made this happen. Now, instead of putting the interest back into the fund to keep up the momentum, we can begin to use it for our own purposes and projects.

This endowment provides a solid financial bedrock for the future of St. Louis, King of France parish. We serve as literally a cornerstone of downtown St. Paul and the Twin Cities in general. Everyone knows us, and almost everyone has been here at one time or another! As part of the Archdiocese for over 150 years, we have contributed much to its spiritual life.

Again, merci beaucoup to all, and see you in church. God Bless!
 Fr. Joe Hurtuk, S.M.
