The Body and Blood of Christ
Corpus Christi

The bread that I will give is my flesh for the life of the world. (John 6:51)

Today we celebrate the feast of Corpus Christi, the Body and Blood of Christ. We stand in awe that Jesus makes himself truly and entirely present in the Eucharist. We marvel at the glorious mystery that the Divine Son of God not only became a man and offered himself on the cross but that he also comes to us, Body and Blood, soul and divinity, so that we can receive him into our own bodies in Communion.

In today's Gospel, Jesus is early in his ministry, but he is already pointing people toward the Last Supper, passion, and death. He tells them that just as God had fed his people Israel with manna in the desert, he would feed them. But Jesus is not speaking only about physical bread and the miraculous multiplication of the loaves (John 6:1-15). He is promising the "food that endures for eternal life" (John 6:27). He is proclaiming that he himself is "the living bread that came down from heaven" and that he will give them his own "flesh for the life of the world" (John 6:51).

At Mass today, as the priest lifts up the Host, fix your eyes and heart on Jesus. As you pray, "Lord, I am not worthy," trust in the mercy of your crucified Savior. As you come forward to receive Jesus, proclaim your faith in his true, Real Presence in what was once only bread and wine. And as you kneel in grateful prayer, praise and thank him for giving his life to you and offering himself for the whole world.

"Lord Jesus, I believe you are truly present in the Eucharist. I adore you and I give my life to you."

FOCUS ON THE WORD

In the Eucharist, the Lord nurtures our souls and makes us one with him.

Today, on the Solemnity of the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ, we profess what we believe and celebrate at every Mass: The simple, ordinary gifts of bread and wine are transformed, by the power of the Holy Spirit, into our Lord's Real Presence. When we partake of the Eucharist, Jesus remains with us. Let us pray that we may be more aware of this presence so we can proclaim this truth to others.

LETTER FROM FR. PAUL F. MORRISSEY, SM

Dear Parishioners and Friends of the Little French Church

It was a great privilege and an even greater blessing to be stationed at the Church of Saint Louis, King of France, from 1985-2016. Those years were the happiest of my priesthood. And of those 31 years at St. Louis, I was deeply honored to be pastor for 28 years.

I especially want to thank Father Hurtuk for his gracious kindness in inviting me to the Celebratory Mass and wish him and Father Sajdak and Father Roland a peaceful process in their moving to new locations.

Regrettably and regretfully, I am unable to attend the Celebratory Mass on June 6, 2026. Because of multiple medical problems my primary physician has recommended that I refrain from any distant or long traveling trips.

In this period of transition, we can be most grateful for what is our past and most hopeful for what is the future. Please be assured that you will always have a special place in my heart.

Abidingly grateful,
 Fr. Paul F. Morrissey, S.M.

SYNOD BOOK CLUB

The Synod Book Club will meet on Tuesday, June 9, 2026, at 6:30 PM in the parish hall. They will discuss the book “A Hiker’s Guide to Purgatory” by Michael Norton. New members are always welcome. Please come and join us.

GROUNDS CREW VOLUNTEERS

We would like to thank the people who volunteered for the grounds crew; namely, Phyllis and Peter Strong, Joe Gustafson, Cathy Frazier and Deb Hartung. They have been maintaining the church property by picking up the trash so the church property looks well maintained. We thank them for their generous and kind help. It is very much appreciated.

SECOND COLLECTION NEXT WEEK

There will be a second collection next week for the air conditioning fund. Your continued generosity and support is always most appreciated.

BULLETIN ADVERTISING

There are two open advertising spaces on the back of our parish bulletin. Please consider advertising your business. The advertising on the back of our parish bulletin pays the cost of printing the bulletin. Also, the parish receives a rebate from LPi every year based on the number of ads placed. For more information, please call Kathy at the parish office. Many thanks.

FATHERS’ DAY NOVENA

The Fathers’ Day Novena begins on Sunday, June 21, 2026 and continues through Monday, June 29, 2026. Cards and envelopes to honor fathers both living and deceases are located at the back of the church. Please write their names legibly on the envelopes. You can drop them in the collection basket or mail them to the parish office. Please do not put your envelope in the caverns. Many thanks.
