MEDITATION

June 9, 2024

10th Sunday in Ordinary Time

*We look not to what is seen but to what is unseen.
(2 Corinthians 4:18)*

St. Paul must have been a marvel! Not only was he a passionate apostle and evangelist, but he was also a skilled theologian and writer. He founded some of the most important churches in the ancient world. More than one-quarter of the New Testament was either written by him, written about him, or attributed to him. What's more, Paul accomplished all of this while enduring ongoing persecution and suffering!

What kept Paul going? Today's second reading gives us the answer: his heart was filled with a heavenly vision. Paul could consider beatings and shipwrecks as "light affliction" because he had received glimpses of the "eternal weight of glory" that awaited him (2 Corinthians 4:17.) He could make light of how his "outer self" was "wasting away" because the Lord kept renewing his "inner self" (4:16). And he was able to keep his focus off the hardships staring him in the face because he kept seeking insight into "what is unseen," the eternal truths of a loving, faithful God (4:18).

All of this may sound hopelessly out of reach, but the truth is, the kind of heavenly vision St. Paul describes is open to everyone. That's because it doesn't depend on our talents but on the Spirit's grace. All he asks of us is faithfulness to prayer, an open and humble heart, and a promise to be patient as he slowly opens our eyes.

God wants to give you a heavenly vision! Even in the midst of any "light afflictions" you may be experiencing, he can give you his consolation and strength. Even when you can't seem to see the way ahead, he will bring the path to heaven into sharper focus. So keep fixing your heart on "what is unseen." Keep asking the Spirit to help you look at "what is seen" with new eyes (2 Corinthians 4:18). This is one prayer he loves to answer!

"Lord, open my eyes! Fill me with a vision of heaven"

Genesis 3:9-15 Psalm 130:1-8 Mark 3:20-35

"St. Anthony's Bread" You likely associate it with the envelopes found in the back of church. The origin of this Franciscan charity program actually has something to do with the food for which it was named. Different legends account for the donation of what is called St. Anthony's Bread. In 1263, when it is said a child drowned near the Basilica of St. Anthony which was still being built, his mother promised if the child was restored to her she would give for the poor an amount of corn equal to the child's weight. Her prayer and promise were rewarded with the boy's return to life.

Founded in France: In 1888 Louise Bouffier was a baker in Toulon, France. A locksmith was prepared to break open her shop door after no key would open it. Bouffier asked the locksmith to try his keys one more time after she prayed and promised to give bread to the poor in honor of St. Anthony if the door would open without force. The door then opened. After many others received favors through the intercession of St. Anthony, in the 1890s they joined Louise Bouffier in founding the charity of "St. Anthony's Bread."
