Thirty-third Sunday in Ordinary Time

Not a hair on your head will be destroyed.
(Luke 21:18)

In today's Gospel, Jesus provides a warning to his disciples. A time will come when there will be not only "earthquakes, famines, and plagues," but even the magnificent Temple will be destroyed (Luke 21:11). Their adversaries will hand them over to prison, their own family members will betray them, and some of them will even be put to death on account of his name (Luke 21:16).

And yet, as frightening as his words are, Jesus assures them that "not a hair" on their heads would be destroyed (Luke 21:18). How could that be?

Jesus' words make sense, both then and now, only if we look beyond this life to the next. He is promising that we will "secure" our lives for heaven if we persevere through hardship and struggle and trust in his grace no matter what comes (Luke 21:19). Then, when our life here on earth ends, we can look forward to the promise of living forever with our Lord.

This promise can give joy and purpose to our lives even now. This life is what Jesus offered his disciples; that's why they left everything to follow him. Then, when he gave them the Holy Spirit at Pentecost, he gave them a share in his own resurrected eternal life. They knew that sin and suffering, death and desolation, no longer had the final word. Eternal life had already begun for them!

This is the joyful witness of the apostles, martyrs, and all the saints. And it can be your witness as well, no matter your situation. So don't let today's Gospel frighten you. You can know the comfort of the Spirit and the joy of Jesus' victory tdy. You can stay faithful because Jesus will be with you in every circumstance. He will give you all the grace you need here and now, along with the sure and certain hope of eternal life in heaven. You can trust in his loving care now and forever!

"Jesus, with you by my side, I have nothing to fear—whatever my future holds!"

CHOIR FOR CHRISTMAS EVE 5 PM MASS

We are asking for volunteers to form a Christmas Choir for the 5 PM Vigil Mass on Christmas Eve. Rehearsal dates and time are to be determined depending on the number of volunteers and their preference on day and time for rehearsal. As St. Augustine stated, “to sing is praying twice.” To sing at the Vigil Mass on Christmas Eve is a good way to celebrate Mass with festive singing of Christmas Music.
